b Leo and Ava discuss the question in a. Read the dialogue and fill in the missing words.

searched • customers • heavy • order • helpful • closed down

Leo: I prefer to buy books in my local bookshop.

Ava: Yes, me too. I like to support local businesses. Our High Street has a lot of empty shops now.

Leo: Did you know my sister Olivia _____ (1) her lovely boutique last month? Her sales of clothes and accessories went down and down over the last few years.

Ava: Oh no, I liked that shop! She was always very _____ (2). I bought a lot of clothes there. The pullover I'm wearing now is from her shop!

Leo: Yes, she had some beautiful clothes and loved serving her _____ (3).

Ava: Personal service makes such a difference, and Olivia's an expert! But I must say: I also _____ (4) a lot of things online. It's easier sometimes. For example, I bought a TV online last week.

I _____ (5) for one in an electronics website, read some feedback, compared prices, then I ordered a really good one. It arrived the next day. The driver even carried it into my living room.

Leo: Delivered to your door, no _____ (6) boxes to carry.

And no searching for a parking space or waiting for buses in the rain. Buying online has a lot of advantages.

Ava: I know. But I still go shopping for a lot of things in the High Street, I like meeting people I know. But, sadly, no longer in Olivia's shop!

b You want to buy a new smartphone online. You have searched the Internet and have found the perfect phone for you! Write a few sentences about why you chose it. Use the points in a to help you.

It's an older model so it's not too expensive.

It had some very good feedback.

c Your new smartphone has arrived. 😊 But what about your old one? You want to sell it or give it away. Look at the list and tick the method(s) you like best for selling second-hand products. Discuss your choice(s) with your partner.

- flea market • garage sale • car-boot sale •
- online marketplace • second-hand shop •
- social media groups • special apps •
- notice board at work/school • charity shop

- ◆ I often sell things in an online marketplace. It's very easy.
- I usually take old things to a local charity shop. They need our support.
